

LEONARD GIVEN DECISION OVER KELLY

New York, Nov. 17.—Benny Leonard, lightweight boxing champion, scored a technical knockout over "Harlem" Eddie Kelly in the fifth round of a scheduled 15 round contest at the Commonwealth sporting club here tonight. The referee stopped the bout after Leonard had severely punished the local boxer.

Kelly attempted to fight on, but the champion held him off easily. In the second round Leonard drove a hard left to Kelly's stomach and a right to the head, following with a short right uppercut. Kelly was groggy at the bell.

In the third round, Leonard landed a left and badly cut his opponent's right eye. Leonard took a left hook after driving left to Kelly's body and following with rights to the head. He repeated these punches in the fifth and after one minute and thirteen seconds of fighting, Kelly was unable to get to his feet.

Leonard's weight was announced at 135 pounds at 2 p. m. and Kelly's at 127 1/2.

In his first appearance here, Jeff Daurty, Chicago middleweight, knocked out Terry Mitchell, of Bayonne, N. J., in 14 seconds.

DAVIS CUP TEAM SAILED FROM VICTORIA FOR NEW ZEALAND

Victoria, B. C., Nov. 17.—Members of the American Davis cup team sailed today for New Zealand, where they will attempt to win the Davis trophy. Tennis games will be played on the boat and strict training rules will be observed.

Samuel Hardy, playing manager, said William Tilden, 2nd, world's singles champion, who is a member of the team, is gaining rapidly in form, although he has not entirely recovered from a recent breakdown.

HARVARD PLAYERS WARNED AGAINST OVER-CONFIDENCE

Cambridge, Mass., Nov. 17.—Harvard football players were warned against over-confidence concerning the game with Yale next Saturday when they were cheered by students and advised by coaches at a mass meeting in the Harvard Union tonight.

"We expect a fighting game from the time the opening whistle sounds," Head Coach Bob Fisher told them, "and we will have to play to our utmost to win. Yale has a wonderful, powerful squad of football players who have not found themselves yet, but they will have found themselves when they face the Harvard team in the Bowl on Saturday.

"I know I have an eleven here that is equal to that of Yale. These boys will go out there on Yale field Saturday and give to them. I am sure of that. And if you fellows will give them your support, the support of every Harvard man and student, I will guarantee that we will give you victory."

Coach Fisher said the lineup was not yet determined.

"There are eleven men on this eleven right now," he said, "and if you were to ask which ones are going to start the Yale game I would have to say eleven of those sixteen. And I am sure that I don't know just now. That is because every one of these men is fighting his hardest to make a regular position."

WELLESLEY WOMEN TO FEED YALE-HARVARD VISITORS

Spectators of the Yale-Harvard game in the Yale bowl next Saturday need not go to the game hungry this year. One of the drawbacks of the big game always has been the dearth of lunching facilities when 70,000 persons flock into New Haven in a few short hours. To remedy this situation the New Wellesley club has completed arrangements to provide at least five hundred visitors, and as many more as can be accommodated, with home-made food at reasonable prices.

The college women have arranged a canteen in the New Haven High school at Broadway and York square, and on the route to the bowl. Among the cooks and waitresses on duty will be members of the Wellesley Relief Unit, which served in France and knows how to move about under difficulties and do it quickly.

The day's menu will have such good football weather dishes as ham, potatoes, baked beans, rolls and coffee, pies, cakes and sandwiches—lots of them, and home made. The canteen will open at 11 o'clock and remain open until 1:30, half an hour before game time. All the wayfarer has to do is to follow the blue arrows marked to the Wellesley Canteen until a big blue sign marks the high school.

This service does not end in the canteen. There is good parking space within two blocks of the bowl where Wellesley girls will take charge of automobiles and guard their contents for the duration of the game.

The canteen is under the direction of Mrs. Charles R. Hart, of 23 West Elm street, New street, president of the New Haven Wellesley club; Miss Florence Bryant of Hartford, Conn., and Mrs. Charles W. Whittlesley of 6 Everett street, New Haven.

MARKET WAS UNSTABLE

New York, Nov. 17.—Stocks evinced a disposition to throw off their protracted inaction at the opening of today's trading, but before the session was half spent the market encountered another mulling movement in which many of the records for a year or more were registered.

Lacking definite or specific reasons, the relative inaction at the opening was credited to a general lassitude over night by dormant trading interests which dwell on the soundness of "fundamental financial conditions."

Trade movements were coupled, however, with indications that general business prospects, especially as applicable to retail trade, left much to be desired and that certain remedial measures might have to be considered in that quarter.

The character of the day's reaction suggested that a considerable part of the new liquidation was proceeding from such quarters. Occasional speculative advance more or less except in the recent setback broke 3 to 5 over 10 points, finally affecting popular issues at extreme declines of 2 to 3 points.

Lecturism in the course of the session contributed in varying degree to the reversal. Chief among these was the weekly survey of the front page, emphasizing the outlook in that industry. A cut in the glass rubber dividend and the fall in ship shares to pre-war levels, furthermore, and dividend adjustments were among the other unfavorable factors.

Short covering in the final dealings resulted in rallies of one to almost three points from lowest points, but a weak close prevailed at the close. U. S. Steel recovered a point from its low minimum of 39 1/2. General Motors, Reading, Southern Pacific, Northern Pacific, Canadian Pacific, American International, Utah Copper and Retail Stores finished at losses of 2 to 4 1/2 points, and Famous Players fell 11 points. Sales amounted to 1,125,000 shares.

Call money's decline to 2 per cent, and further strength of foreign exchange exerted an influence over the stock market. Funds were disturbed by the fresh pressure in the stock list, although Liberty bonds closed at gains. Total sales (par value) aggregated $11,299,966. Old U. S. bonds were unchanged on call.

CHICAGO GRAIN MARKET.

Chicago, Nov. 17.—Aggressive selling, emphasized by reports that three vessel loads of Canadian wheat were coming here, and that Chicago concerns were buying wheat at Minneapolis to bring to Chicago, had a bearish effect today on the market. The market closed nervous, 2 cents to 5 cents lower, with December 184 1/4 to 184 1/2 and March 172 1/4 to 172 1/2.
